

About the Author

Miles Mason, Sr., JD, CPA, received a BS from the University of Alabama, where he majored in accounting, in 1987. In 1994, he earned his JD from the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law at the University of Memphis. Mr. Mason is the founder of the Miles Mason Family Law Group, PLC, located in Memphis, Tennessee. He practices family law exclusively.

An active member of the ABA Family Law Section, Mr. Mason serves as its Liaison to the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), has served on its CLE Committee, has attended its Trial Advocacy Institute, has presented at conferences, and has written for the Family Advocate. He is past chair of the Tennessee Bar Association's Family Law Section, served as editor of the section's newsletter, and served on the editorial board of the Tennessee Bar Journal. Mr. Mason is also a member of the AICPA, the Tennessee Society of CPAs, and the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA). He has served on planning committees for their various conferences.

In addition, Mr. Mason has presented at numerous national and regional conferences, including the AICPA's National Business Valuation Conference and National Forensic Accounting Conference, as well as at conferences and seminars held by NACVA/IBA, the Tennessee Society of CPAs, and the Mississippi Society of CPAs. He has authored articles for publications by the ABA Family Law Section, the Tennessee Bar Association, and the Georgia Bar Association Family Law Section.

Mr. Mason is married and has three children. To learn more about Mr. Mason and his practice, see MemphisDivorce.com.