

David A. Applebaum Bio

David A. Applebaum recently joined the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission as an attorney in the Office of Enforcement, Division of Investigations. Before joining FERC, he practiced class action defense, antitrust litigation and counseling, and complex civil litigation as a shareholder at Leonard, Street and Deinard, PA in Minneapolis and an associate at O'Melveny & Myers, LLP in Washington, DC. David was a law clerk to U.S. District Court Judge Thomas A. Wiseman, Jr. and Tennessee Supreme Court Justice Frank F. Drowota, III. He graduated from Vanderbilt University Law School and the University of Pennsylvania.