

William J. Baer

Bill Baer heads Arnold & Porter's highly regarded global antitrust and consumer protection practice, which has over 90 attorneys in the US and Europe. From 1995 through 1999, he served as Director of the Federal Trade Commission's (FTC) Bureau of Competition. In a previous stint at the FTC, he held positions in the Bureau of Consumer Protection and General Counsel's office and served as an attorney advisor to the Chairman.

Bill currently represents clients on a wide range of antitrust and trade regulation issues, including cartel investigations, mergers and joint ventures, and civil and criminal litigation. Bill splits his time between the firm's Washington, DC and Brussels, Belgium offices.

Publications such as Chambers, PLC Which Lawyer and The International Who's Who of Competition Lawyers consistently recognize Bill as one of the leading competition lawyers in the world.

Bill is admitted to the District of Columbia Bar.

Education: J.D., 1975, Stanford Law School; B.A., 1972, Lawrence University