

William F. Cavanaugh, Jr.

William F. Cavanaugh, Jr. recently joined the U.S. Department of Justice as a Deputy Assistant Attorney General for Civil Enforcement in the Antitrust Division. Before joining DOJ, Mr. Cavanaugh was Co-Chair of Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler LLP in New York where he was a highly regarded litigator and trial attorney handling a broad range of commercial, antitrust and intellectual property matters. Mr. Cavanaugh has been inducted as a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers. He also has been selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America® 2009 for Antitrust Law and Commercial Litigation. Chambers USA 2008 has recognized him in the area of Intellectual Property and Euromoney/Institutional Investor's 2009 Benchmark: America's Leading Litigation Firms and Attorneys lists Mr. Cavanaugh as a "Litigation Star."