Tom is a partner in the Cleveland office of Thompson Hine LLP and heads the firm's Antitrust, Competition and Distribution Practice. He has handled antitrust and dealer termination cases in federal and state courts throughout the country, and he regularly counsels clients on antitrust matters ranging from pricing issues under the Robinson-Patman Act, to vertical restraints and competitor relations under the Sherman and Clayton Acts.

Tom is Chair of the Joint Conduct Committee of the Antitrust Law Section of the American Bar Association. He has written and spoken extensively on antitrust, distribution and competition matters, and he has edited two recent ABA publications on antitrust law, ANTITRUST HANDBOOK FOR FRANCHISE AND DISTRIBUTION PRACTITIONERS (2008) and ANTITRUST LAW AND ECONOMICS OF PRODUCT DISTRIBUTION (2006).

Tom is a 1974 graduate of Georgetown University Law Center and has a B.A. from the University of Minnesota (1970) and an A.M. from Harvard University (1972).
