

PATRICIA A. CONNERS, Associate Attorney General and Director, Antitrust Division, Florida Attorney General's Office

Ms. Conners is currently Associate Attorney General under Florida Attorney General, Bill McCollum, responsible for many of the Office's enforcement and litigation initiatives, among other things. In her capacity as Director of the Antitrust Division for the Florida Attorney General's Office, Ms. Conners has, since 1995, also been responsible for implementing and overseeing the Attorney General's state and federal antitrust enforcement efforts and continues in that role in the current administration. She was Chair of the NAAG Multistate Antitrust Task Force from 2001 to 2005, a position through which she coordinated multistate antitrust enforcement efforts and developed and ensured the implementation of policy related to Task Force initiatives.

She received both her undergraduate and J.D. degrees from the University of Florida.
