

Carolyn Galbreath

Carolyn Galbreath is Director of the Cartels Division of the Competition Authority and has been a Member of the Competition Authority since April 2006.

Ms. Galbreath has experience in U.S. and European competition law. As a trial attorney at the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice (San Francisco Office), she prosecuted international criminal cartel cases and litigated corporate mergers. In 1999, Ms. Galbreath was awarded a U.K. Atlantic Fellowship in Public Policy to study European Union mergers and competition law modernization. Ms Galbreath is a graduate of Cleveland Marshall College of Law.