

Roxann E. Henry

Roxann E. Henry is a partner at Howrey LLP. Joining the firm in 1980 after a federal clerkship, she has represented clients in antitrust grand jury investigations, including numerous international cartel investigations, and has coordinated defenses in the context of a multiplicity of national and foreign criminal investigations and civil and administrative actions. Ms Henry won one of the most recent trial “not guilty” verdicts against the U.S. Antitrust Division. Ms Henry has been a court-appointed lead defense counsel in class action litigation and has had extensive experience in antitrust and trade practices counseling and litigation relating to advertising, distribution concerns, compliance and audit programs, and merger/acquisition clearance. She is also a frequent speaker on antitrust issues. Ms Henry is recognized in The International Who’s Who of Competition Lawyers, Chambers Leading lawyers, and in Global Competition Review’s Women in Antitrust.

Ms Henry is serving as Co-Chair of the Spring Meeting Program of the Antitrust Section of the American Bar Association (ABA), has previously served as Secretary and Communications Officer, and Council member. She has served recently as Co-Chair of the International Cartel Workshop (2006), and as Co-Chair of the ABA Antitrust Section’s Criminal Practice and Procedure Committee (1999-2002).

Education/Bar & Court Memberships

Vassar College (A.B., 1975); Rutgers University School of Law (J.D. 1978). Editor, Rutgers Law Journal. Clerkship, the Honorable Floyd R. Gibson, Chief Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, 1978-80. Admitted to bar: 1979, Pennsylvania; 1980, New Jersey; 1981, District of Columbia. Also admitted to practice before numerous federal district and appellate courts throughout the United States and the United States Supreme Court.

Contact Information

1299 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20004-2402
Direct Dial: 202.383.6503
Fax: 202.383.6610
E-mail: henryr@Howrey.com