Chris Hockett is a partner in the firm's Menlo Park office. He has practiced in the antitrust area for over 20 years, counseling and representing clients in a wide range of antitrust matters nationally. He has served as lead counsel in over 100 antitrust class actions in industries such as microprocessors, telecommunications, medical equipment and chemical manufacturing. Chris has also represented clients in connection with state and federal antitrust investigations in both merger and non-merger contexts, and counseled clients concerning mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and distribution and pricing practices. His practice also includes a substantial amount of patent, contract, and consumer class action litigation.

Chris is a Section Delegate of the ABA Section of Antitrust Law, and a former Section Program Officer and Council Member. He has been a frequent speaker at ABA, Conference Board, Practising Law Institute, Law Seminars International, and other antitrust, intellectual property, and trial practice programs around the country. Chris is on the board of Bay Area Legal Aid (www.baylegal.org) and the University of Virginia Law School Alumni Council. He has been ranked as one of "America's Leading Business Lawyers" by all editions of Chambers USA Guide, and is also listed as a leading lawyer in several other legal industry publications, including The Best Lawyers in America, The Legal 500 U.S., PLC's Cross-Border Competition and Leniency Handbook, Legal Media Group's Guide to the World's Leading Competition and Antitrust Lawyers, and Benchmark Litigation.

Chris received his bachelor's degree from the College of William & Mary, and his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law.
