David Hull is a partner in Covington & Burling's Brussels office and heads its EU competition practice. Mr. Hull has been practising EU competition law for over 25 years in Brussels. He represents clients before the EU courts in Luxembourg and the European Commission and advises them on all aspects of competition law. Recent cases include Ryanair (appeal of Commission's decision blocking takeover of Aer Lingus); Akzo (legal privilege); Bitumen (appeal of fine imposed in cartel case); and Microsoft (appeal of fine imposed for alleged non-compliance with Commission decision). He has particular expertise in issues arising from the intersection of competition and IP law involving hi-tech industries such as pharmaceuticals and IT.

Mr. Hull is former Co-Chair, International Antitrust Law Committee, ABA Section of International Law; Adjunct Professor, European Competition and IP Law, University of Liège School of Law.

He received his J.D. degree from the University of Georgia School of Law in 1983, and an LL.M. degree in European Law from the Institute of European Studies at the Free University of Brussels in 1984. He earned a B.A. in economics from Davidson College in 1979.

Mr. Hull is admitted as a solicitor in England and Wales, and is an associate member of the Brussels Bar.
