

Peter Kohn is partner at Faruqi & Faruqi, LLP (www.faruqilaw.com), which has offices in New York, Hollywood, Los Angeles, and near Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He is currently trial counsel for two retailers in one of the very first resale price maintenance cases following the Leegin decision, which has generated a variety of reported decisions. See Babyage.com, Inc. v. Toys "R" Us, Inc., 558 F. Supp.2d 575 (E.D. Pa. 2008) (denying defendants' motion to dismiss following the Supreme Court's decisions in Twombly and Leegin, and for the first time in the Third Circuit adopting the Merger Guidelines method of relevant market definition); and Babyage.com, Inc. v. Toys "R" Us, Inc., 458 F. Supp.2d 263 (E.D. Pa. 2006) (discoverability of surreptitiously recorded statements prior to deposition of declarant). In a companion case brought by consumers, a class was certified. See McDonough v. Toys "R" Us, Inc., 638 F. Supp. 2d 461 (E.D. Pa. 2009).

Mr. Kohn was recognized as a "recommended" antitrust attorney in the Northeast in 2009 by the Legal 500 guide (www.legal500.com) and was chosen by his peers as a "SuperLawyer" in Pennsylvania in 2009 and 2010. He has been in practice for 18 years, and has practiced antitrust law for over a decade.
