

SAUL P. MORGENSTERN

Mr. Morgenstern, a member of the firm of KAYE SCHOLER LLP, regularly represents clients in complex antitrust cases, particularly in class action, multi-party and multi-jurisdictional litigation, as well as in connection with antitrust investigations conducted by the U.S. Department of Justice, State Attorneys General and the Federal Trade Commission. He has counseled and represented clients in the agricultural chemical, computer hardware and software, diamond, energy, entertainment, insurance, investment banking, leasing, leisure, petrochemical, pharmaceutical, publishing, real estate, specialty chemical, telecommunications and toy industries. Among other things, he has represented several brand name pharmaceutical companies in pricing and price discrimination litigation, and has counseled clients in several industries with respect to pricing and distribution programs.

Mr. Morgenstern is a member of the 2009 ABA Antitrust Law Developments Supplement Editorial Board, co-Editor of the ABA Price Discrimination Handbook (in progress), and co-Editor of the ABA Antitrust and Associations Handbook (2009). He is a co-author of the "Competition and Antitrust Law" chapter in International Corporate Practice: A Practitioner's Guide to Global Success (Practising Law Institute, 2008). Mr. Morgenstern served as Chair of the N.Y. State Bar Association Antitrust Law Section in 2007, and as Vice Chair of the Price Discrimination (2002-05) Trade Associations Committees (2006-09) of the American Bar Association Section of Antitrust Law. He regularly speaks before, and organizes antitrust training programs for, bar groups, clients and client legal departments.
