Penny Newman has been the Global Antitrust Advisor for the international media company Bertelsmann AG since January 2002. Based in Brussels, she supervises and coordinates Bertelsmann's competition matters including merger control and compliance for the company worldwide. Bertelsmann is active across a range of businesses including book publishing, television and radio broadcasting, magazine publishing as well as print and media services. Prior to working for Bertelsmann, Ms Newman practiced EC competition law for the Brussels office of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer. Before moving to Brussels in 1998, she was an Assistant Attorney General for the Missouri Attorney General where she was responsible for Missouri's enforcement of state and federal antitrust laws. Ms Newman has an LL.M. in International and Comparative Law from the Vrije Universiteit Brussel, with a focus on EC competition law.
