

Dr. Steve Peterson, Compass Lexecon

Steve Peterson is a Senior Vice President with Compass Lexecon and is based in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Dr. Peterson specializes in the economics of antitrust and competition, estimation of damages, and regulation and public policy. He has worked for clients in a wide variety of industries including transportation, software, entertainment, telecommunications, chemicals and energy.

Dr. Peterson has provided consulting and expert witness testimony on a range of topics including competition matters, patent misuse, and damages. He provided economic analysis on behalf of Delta Air Lines in support of its merger with Northwest Airlines. Dr. Peterson has consulted with clients engaged in negotiations with the U.S. Department of Justice and customers to resolve allegations of price-fixing. He has also provided testimony on damages matters in antitrust cases and commercial disputes.

Dr. Peterson has a PhD in economics from Harvard University and a BA with highest honors in economics from the University of California, Davis.