Mr. Rill served as Assistant Attorney General in charge of the U.S. Department of Justice's Antitrust Division from 1989-1992. During his tenure as Assistant Attorney General he negotiated the U.S. European Union Antitrust Cooperation Agreement of 1991 and issued the first joint FTC and DOJ Horizontal Merger Guidelines in 1992

In 1997, Mr. Rill was appointed by Attorney General Janet Reno and Assistant Attorney General Joel Klein to serve as co-chair of the U.S. Department of Justice's International Competition Policy Advisory Committee with a mandate to recommend future policy initiatives to the U.S. Department of Justice. The recommendations of the Committee's report, submitted in February 2000, are being pursued both in the U.S. and overseas.

Mr. Rill joined Howrey in April 2000. He is engaged in an active and diverse antitrust practice and regularly appears before the U. S. Department of Justice Antitrust Division and the Federal Trade Commission. In addition, he has an active international competition practice and has appeared before the Competition Directorate of the European Commission, the Australian Competition and Consumer Protection Commission, the French Conseil de la Concurrence, the Japan Fair Trade Commission, the Korea Fair Trade Commission, the Taiwan Fair Trade Commission, and the Competition Bureau Canada.

Mr. Rill is active in numerous professional organizations relating to competition policy.

Additionally, he is a former chairman of the ABA's Section of Antitrust Law and co-chair of the International Task Force.
