

Ramsey Shehadeh, Ph.D.
Senior Vice President
NERA Economic Consulting

Ramsey Shehadeh is Senior Vice President at NERA Economic Consulting. At NERA, Dr. Shehadeh has conducted research on the competitive effects of mergers and acquisitions in a variety of industries. In addition, Dr. Shehadeh has conducted research on a broad range of market power issues, including research on economic issues related to liability and calculation of damages. He has presented his research numerous times in state and federal court proceedings and before enforcement agencies including the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, U.S. Department of Justice, U.S. Commodities Futures Trading Commission, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, attorneys general, the European Commission, and the Canadian Competition Bureau, among others.