

KALINA M. TULLEY

Kalina M. Tulley is a trial attorney in the Chicago Field Office of the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice. She represents the United States in investigations and prosecutions of corporations and individuals for criminal antitrust violations, including price-fixing, bid rigging, market and customer allocation, and related offenses. Prior to joining the Antitrust Division, Ms. Tulley was an Assistant State's Attorney for the Cook County State's Attorney's Office where she served as a felony trial attorney and a supervisor in the Criminal Appeals Division. Prior to joining the State's Attorney's Office, Ms. Tulley clerked for the Honorable Justice William Cousins, Jr. of the Illinois Appellate Court.

Ms. Tulley is currently the Vice-Chair of the Chicago Bar Association Antitrust Committee and was previously the Chair of the Antitrust and Unfair Competition Section Council of the Illinois State Bar Association.

Ms. Tulley earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from Loyola University Chicago School of Law in 1992, and her B.S. in Accounting, with high honors, from the University of Illinois in 1989.