

Kim Van Winkle is an Assistant Attorney General in the Antitrust Division of the Texas Attorney General's office, where she has worked in state antitrust enforcement for over ten years. Ms. Van Winkle has investigated and litigated mergers, price-fixing and monopolization cases in a variety of industries, including health care, insurance, pharmaceuticals, and computer software and hardware. She also worked as a senior trial attorney at a law firm where she specialized in antitrust, Medicaid fraud and deceptive trade practices cases. Ms. Van Winkle received her J.D. with honors in 1997 from the University of Texas School of Law, as well as a Masters degree from the LBJ School of Public Affairs. She is a Vice Chair of the American Bar Association's State Enforcement Committee.