Hill Wellford is an antitrust partner at Bingham McCutchen LLP in Washington, D.C. He previously served as Chief of Staff for the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice and also held staff positions at DOJ from 2004 to 2009. While at DOJ, among other matters, he helped author the brief for the United States as amicus curiae in Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly and the DOJ/FTC “IP2” Intellectual Property Report, released in 2007.

Hill received his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law and his undergraduate degree from Dartmouth College.
