Welcome to Washington's landmark residence of choice while visiting the nation's capital. The Hay-Adams is as close as anyone can get to staying at the White House, short of being invited by the President.

Originally designed in the 1920's as a residential hotel, the Hay-Adams has always preserved the ambiance of a distinguished private home on Lafayette Square. The 145-room hotel features 20 suites, some with views of Lafayette Park and the White House. All guest rooms combine heritage and luxury with contemporary comfort and technology.

Located in Lafayette Square and just walking distance from many of Washington D.C.'s landmarks, the Hay-Adams is the perfect place for both leisure and business travelers alike.

The ABA Section of Antitrust Law has a small group of rooms being held at the Hay-Adams on Lafayette Square for the Spring Meeting.

Rate: $385.00 USD + 14.5% sales tax.

Please phone 202.638.6600 or 800.424.5054 to make reservations. Please reference ABA Section of Antitrust Law 2010 Spring Meeting.

The Hotel shall accept reservations on a space available basis. There is limited availability.

Thank you.
