

Membership Information

ABA Membership

Start maximizing your ABA membership today. Discover more ways to put our many services to work for you.

Benefits

- Enhance your expertise with cutting-edge authoritative information on your specialty or interest.
- Gain important networking opportunities with others who have similar interests from across the nation.
- Earn CLE credit through CLE conferences, monthly ABA Connection online, and teleconference seminars.
- Receive hotel discounts using the ABA Preferred Hotel negotiated rates.
- Receive discounts on travel with American Airlines and Hertz.

Section of Antitrust Law Membership

Enhance your ABA experience by joining the Section of Antitrust Law. Membership in the Section gives you access to colleagues and services that will expand your professional development.

Benefits

- Enhance your expertise with cutting-edge authoritative information on antitrust and consumer protection law.
- Receive discounts on conference registration and Section publications.
- Receive the Antitrust Law Journal, Antitrust Magazine, and Antitrust Source; access the Searchable online database of antitrust and consumer protection materials, which are useful for research and casework.
- Obtain membership in a community of antitrust and consumer protection professionals with diverse interests and practices; including domestic and international government officials.

Committee Membership

As a Section member, you may join the Section's substantive, committees, which are organized into three broad areas of antitrust law: Practice Skills/Litigation Committees; Substantive Legal Committees; and Industry

Committees. There are 27 committees, one or more of which is tailored to give you what you need at the moment or for longer term practice development across a range of substantive issue and industry areas. Committee membership is an excellent way to "access" the Section and its wealth of resources, and to become engaged personally and professionally with other antitrust and consumer protection specialists.

Benefits

- Committee Brown Bag programs on timely substantive topics;
- Committee Newsletters and papers providing in-depth analysis of specialized areas and current topics;
- Discussion lists for timely updates and discussion of major developments in antitrust law and consumer protection; and
- Opportunities to write for committee publications.

Section Web site - www.abanet.org/antitrust

When looking for the most current antitrust and consumer protection information, log on to the Section Web site.

Benefits

- Section calendar with upcoming program details;
- Online meeting registration;
- Searchable Antitrust Library (SAL) online research tool;
- Information on how to join the Section and Section committees and member benefits; and
- Links to current antitrust and consumer protection cases and sites

The Source - www.antitrustsource.com

The ABA Section of Antitrust Law produces the Antitrust Source, an online magazine, six times a year.

Questions -

- Visit www.abanet.org/antitrust
- Visit the ABA staff in the bookstore
- Email Deborah Douglas douglasd@staff.abanet.org
Diane Odom odomd@staff.abanet.org
Margaret E. Guerin-Calvert mguerin-calvert@compasslexecon.com