The ABA Section of Antitrust Law has long been known as the most trusted name in legal publishing with respect to antitrust law, and its active committees and editorial boards produce multiple new titles each year.

JUST PUBLISHED!

Stop by the Antitrust Bookstore at the Spring Meeting to review and order the following:

- 2008 Annual Review of Antitrust Law Developments
The Publications provides a comprehensive review of U.S. federal antitrust law and related state and international developments during 2008.
- Consumer Protection Law Developments
This comprehensive new treatise provides an authoritative resource that covers the full scope of consumer protection law in the United States. A must-have for those practicing consumer protection law.
- Model Jury Instructions in Criminal Antitrust Cases
Designed for courts and litigators in criminal antitrust cases, this volume provides model jury instructions and notes discussing sources for each instruction. An excellent complement to Model Jury Instructions in Civil Antitrust Cases, published in 2005.
- Antitrust and Trade Associations (2nd ed.)
This update provides practical advice regarding the laws governing common association activities, including standards development, information collection, and joint purchasing. The volume also provides practice tips for handling antitrust compliance and investigations.
- Issues in Competition Law and Policy
The three-volume set contains a complete and detailed perspective on issues in the design and enforcement of competition law, the technical legal framework of competition law, and the policy issues that lie behind the law. The authors of this book read like a who's who of policy makers, academics, economists, and lawyers from across the globe, ensuring a variety of perspectives on and approaches to competition law and policy.

AND KEEP AN EYE OUT FOR THE SOON TO BE PUBLISHED

- State Antitrust Practice and Statutes (4th ed.)
This treatise incorporates changes in state antitrust laws since 2004 and provides a practical look at substantive state antitrust law, exemptions and defenses to antitrust liability, and government and private enforcement trends.

The Section is committed to the highest standards of scholarship and continuing legal education. To that end, each work is drafted and edited by leading experts on the topics covered and then rigorously peer-reviewed by the Section's Books and Treatises Committee, at least two Council members, and other officers and experts
