Competition Policy and Intellectual Property Rights

GARY HEWITT

Organization for Economic Co-Operation and Development (OECD) - Competition Policy Division

September 1998

Roundtables In Competition Policy No. 17

Abstract:

This publication (of 458 pages) represents the proceedings of a roundtable competition issues related to intellectual property rights held at the OECD in October 1997. The proceedings include a background note by Willard Tom of the US FTC, submissions from 12 OECD countries and 7 other papers by experts in this field. Issues covered include the potential conflict of competition and intellectual property laws, the appropriate breadth of intellectual property rights, and vertical and horizontal restraints arising from the exercise of intellectual property rights issues.
