

Community Economic Development Pro Bono Project

Consent for Disclosure of Case Information

Your organization has requested pro bono legal services from the D.C. Bar Pro Bono Program Community Economic Development Pro Bono Project (the Project.)

While the Project will make every effort to preserve the confidential nature of your organization's legal problems, in seeking pro bono counsel we will need to disclose some of the descriptive material, which you have provided to us in order to match your organization with a law firm.

In addition, as we receive support from foundations, and other grantors, the name of your organization and a brief description of the legal matters handled may be disclosed in fundraising materials, reports to donors and annual reports.

By signing this Consent, it is our understanding that you have granted us permission to make such disclosures, as we deem necessary.
