About ELA

The Employment Lawyers Association (ELA) is an apolitical organisation representing the views and interests of over 4,700 specialist, qualified employment lawyers in the UK. Since its inception in 1992, ELA has become the voice of authority in employment law.

Our members are drawn from all branches of the legal profession and include barristers and solicitors who act for employers and employees, trade unions, the voluntary sector, industry and the judiciary.

ELA's fundamental aims are:

- to promote the best practice of employment law; and
- to support the work and represent the interests of UK employment lawyers
