RECOGNIZING,
That the American Bar Association recommended in its resolution of February 19, 2001 that the United States Government accede to the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED,
That the American Bar Association reconfirms its commitment that the United States Government accede to or ratify the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED,
That the American Bar Association urges the President of the United States to continue to expand and broaden interaction between the U.S. and the International Criminal Court, including cooperation with the Court’s investigations and proceedings;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED,
That the Association calls on the President of the United States to authorize the participation of the United States Government in all future sessions of the International Criminal Court’s governing body, the Assembly of States Parties, including their preparations for the Review Conference to be held in 2010, in the spirit of this expanded and broadened relationship with the International Criminal Court.
