Summer 2017 Joint Newsletter

CALL FOR ARTICLES

The Endangered Species Committee of the ABA Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources and the International Environmental Law Committee of the ABA Section of International Law are now accepting submissions for our Summer 2017 Joint Committee Newsletter. We are seeking proposals from legal practitioners, natural resource professionals, law professors or students, and others interested in writing on issues of biodiversity and endangered species law, policy, and practice.

The Summer Newsletter will focus on the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species (CITES), Lacey Act, and other issues pertaining to wildlife trafficking, poaching, and trade.

• To Submit a Proposal: Email a working title and 1–2 paragraph summary of your piece, along with a short bio, to the Committees’ Newsletter Vice Chairs at escnewseditor@gmail.com. To ensure that topics do not overlap, please submit your article topic by Friday, June 2, 2017 at the latest. Any proposals submitted after the deadline will be subject to space availability.

• Article Deadline: The deadline for all final article submissions is Friday, July 21, 2017.

• Full-length Articles: Full-length articles should be between 700–1,500 words in length. With prior approval, articles may exceed 1,500 words. The ABA SEER Writer's Guidelines for Committee Newsletters is attached to provide further guidance.

• Recent Developments: This section features synopses of relevant, timely topics of regional, national, and international interest, which need not be on theme (case updates, legislation, regulations, etc.). The word limit may vary considerably depending on the complexity of topics covered in each update. If you are interested in contributing to the Recent Developments section, please email us by the June 2 deadline, and let us know what topic(s) you would like to cover.

If you have questions, please do not hesitate to contact us at escnewseditor@gmail.com. We encourage you to submit proposals early and to share the attached announcement with others who may be interested. This is an excellent publication opportunity!
