

The American Bar Association Commission on Domestic Violence, Commission on Immigration, Rule of Law Initiative, Center on Pro Bono, Commission on Youth At Risk, Section of Individual Rights and Responsibilities and Center on Human Rights present a

NATIONAL TRAINING INSTITUTE ON CIVIL REMEDIES FOR HUMAN TRAFFICKING VICTIMS

Sponsored By:

Hosted By:

DAY 1: THURSDAY OCTOBER 2, 2008

SPECIAL ISSUES IN HUMAN TRAFFICKING: HOW TO REPRESENT A TRAFFICKED PERSON

8:00 a.m. Registration and Continental Breakfast

Welcome

Karen Mathis, American Bar Association CEELI Institute

The State of Human Trafficking: Prevention, Prosecution and Protection

Ambassador Mark Lagon, U.S. Department of State Office to Monitor and

Combat Trafficking in Persons

Bradley Myles, Polaris Project

Renée Huffman, Ayuda Inc.

Bill Livermore, LexisNexis

Who Are Adult Victims of Human Trafficking?

Joy Zarembka, Break the Chain Campaign

Charles Song, Howrey, LLP

Special Considerations for Child Trafficking Victims

Katherine Kaufka, International Organization for Adolescents

Ivy Lee, Asian Pacific Islander Legal Outreach

12:00 p.m. Lunch On Your Own

Intersection of Domestic Violence and Human Trafficking

Robin Thompson, International Justice Connections, Inc.

Maria Jose Fletcher, Florida Immigrant Advocacy Center

Immigration Remedies for Trafficking Victims

Kavitha Sreeharsha, Legal Momentum

Laura Dawkins, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Sabrina Salomon, Florida Immigrant Advocacy Center

4:30 Day 1 Conference Close

DAY 2: FRIDAY OCTOBER 3, 2008

COLLABORATION AND LITIGATION FOR HUMAN TRAFFICKING VICTIMS

8:00 a.m. – Continental Breakfast

Building Understanding Among Civil and Criminal Attorneys

Robert Moosey, U.S. Department of Justice

Martina Vandenberg, Jenner & Block

Collaboration in Representing Victims of Human Trafficking

Florrie Burke, Human Trafficking Consultant

Heather Moore, Coalition Against Slavery and Trafficking

Introduction to Litigating Human Trafficking Cases Under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act and State Trafficking Civil Statutes

Kathleen Kim, Loyola Law School

Dan Werner, Southern Poverty Law Center

Charles Song, Howrey, LLP

12:00 p.m. Lunch On Your Own

Litigating Human Trafficking Cases: Labor Law Claims, Tort Claims and Other State Claims

Kathleen Kim, Loyola Law School

Dan Werner, Southern Poverty Law Center

Charles Song, Howrey, LLP

Promising Practices in Pro Bono Representation and Coordination

Agnieszka Fryszman, Cohen, Milstein, Hausfeld and Toll, P.L.L.C.

Natalie Nanasi, Tahirih Justice Center

5:00 p.m. Conference Closing

Laura Stein, The Clorox Company