Does Security Trump Trade in the 21st Century?

Ambassador Karan K. Bhatia
Deputy U.S. Trade Representative

Education:
Bachelor's Degree from Princeton University, a master's from the London School of Economics, and a law degree from Columbia University.

Practice Areas:
U.S. Trade Relations with East Asia, South Asia, Southeast Asia, and Africa

Bar/Court Admissions:

Professional Experience:
Prior to joining the Bush Administration in 2001, he was an equity partner at the law firm of Wilmer Cutler & Pickering.

Memberships/Activities:
From 1999-2003, he served as an adjunct professor at Georgetown University Law Center and is a term member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Publications:
He has written and spoken widely on issues of international trade and transportation.