“We were only doing God’s work...”
“Stop! Wait! Government’s no longer the problem—it’s the solution!”
Non Sequitur

He says it's a subprime fruit we can have at an adjustable rate, so what's the worst that could happen?
Pepper... and Salt
THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

"We're in good shape. Nobody understands our financial statement."
"Oh, that three billion dollars."
“Listen—we just stay silent and look remote and concerned and dignified, and we keep the damn bonuses.”
Non Sequitur

OK... I MAY HAVE MADE A SLIGHT MiscalCULATION, BUT AT LEAST IT WON'T AFFECT MY BONUS.
WHITE-COLLAR REHABILITATION

WE NEED TO CHANGE THE PRIORITIES OF THIS COMPANY AND WORK TOWARD THE BETTERMENT OF SOCIETY.

LET'S START BY LOBBYING CONGRESS TO GET RID OF THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION...
"This is what happens when ethical standards are set artificially high."
"It's an amazing coincidence, isn't it, that we all served on the same board of directors?"
LET ME GET THIS STRAIGHT—
I GIVE YOU ONE CIGARETTE AND
NEXT WEEK YOU GUARANTEE ME TEN?!!
IT'S THAT SIMPLE...

MADOFF BEHIND BARS... DAY ONE

BY WALT HANDELSMAN FOR NEWSDAY
"Any chance we could stop by my broker's house?"
"We would like to request a change of venue to an entirely different legal system."
Senator's Move Could Appease Payday Lenders
