

Thursday, August 16

ENGAGE intellectually

Breakfast
On your own

9-10:15 am
Making the Most of Class
Room 3041

Professor Doriane Coleman leads this vital session based on the "How to Read a Case" materials that were included in your LEAD Week mailing. Come prepared to discuss the readings.

10:30 am-Noon
The Google Generation Goes to Law School
Room 3041

Law School Registrar John Spencer explains his role at the center of the Law School's academic hub and will introduce nationally acclaimed speakers, Drake University Law School Professors Lisa Penland and Melissa Weresh.

Noon-1 pm
Pizza Break
Room 3041

Legal Analysis, Research and Writing classes
See enclosed break-out schedule for times and locations
Assignments for your LARW classes are included in your LEAD Week materials; each section meets on both Thursday and Friday.

8 am -5 pm
Student Directory Photo Shoot
Blue Lounge

Business attire is required from the waist up for Student Directory photos, which will be distributed to your classmates, professors, and potential employers. Please arrive at the times designated on the enclosed break-out schedule.

7-9 pm
Alumni Trivia Night
Satisfaction Restaurant at Brightleaf Square
Join local alumni and Alumni and Development staff for a night of trivia (with prizes!) and free pizza and soft drinks at this favorite local hangout.

Friday, August 17

BUILD relationships LIVE with purpose

7:30-9 am
Healthy Living-Healthy Lawyers
See enclosed break-out schedule for times and locations
Your physical and mental well-being are critical to law school success, so start the day with an early morning work-out. Sign up all week for these outings, led by faculty, staff, and alumni, which include a bike ride, yoga, a forest run, and a garden power-walk.

9-10 am
Celebrating Diversity:
Student Leaders' Breakfast
3rd Floor Loggia
All are invited to this DBA-hosted, relationship-building breakfast.

Legal Analysis, Research and Writing classes
See enclosed break-out schedule for times and locations

7 pm
Durham Bulls Game
Durham Bulls Athletic Park
Join your classmates to cheer on the all-American team made famous in the movie "Bull Durham."

A special thanks to the following sponsors whose generosity made LEAD Week possible:

The North Carolina Chief Justice's Commission on Professionalism

Dr. Lee A. and Mrs. Ann D. Whitehurst

KING & SPALDING LLP

LAWYER EDUCATION AND DEVELOPMENT

LEAD WEEK

MONDAY-FRIDAY
AUGUST 13-17, 2007

DUKE LAW

Monday, August 13

EMBODY integrity PRACTICE professionalism

8-9 am

Registration & Breakfast

3rd Floor Loggia and Noble Plaza

Meet your new classmates over coffee and pastries.

9-9:30 am

Deans' Welcome

Room 3041

Dean David Levi and Associate Dean for Admissions and Financial Aid Bill Hoye offer their greetings as the official start to LEAD Week.

9:30-10 am

Duke Blueprint and Honor Code

Room 3041

Associate Dean for Student Affairs Jill Miller introduces the Law School community's expectations and opportunities for professional and personal development.

10-10:45 am

The Ethical Lawyer: A Keynote Address

Room 3041

Professor James Cox draws upon his corporate governance and securities law expertise in this thought-provoking address.

11-11:15 am

Duke University: A Tradition of Excellence

Room 3041

Duke University Archivist Timothy Pyatt T'81 highlights the legacy and traditions of the Law School and greater University.

11:15 am-12:45 pm

Where Do You Draw The Line?

See enclosed break-out schedule for times and locations

Assistant Dean for Student Affairs Chris McLaughlin '96 challenges you to explore the ethical dilemmas you may face while studying and practicing law. Faculty and alumni lead small group discussions.

1-3 pm

Alumni Luncheon with Judge Allyson Duncan '75,

United States Court of Appeals for the 4th Circuit

Washington Duke Inn & Golf Club, President's Ballroom

Take the Duke Law Pledge while dining with members of the Law School community and local alumni. Thanks to the law firm of Hunton & Williams for supporting this meaningful event.

3:30 pm

Optional Computer Training

Room 3041

5-7 pm

Student & Faculty Professionalism Reception

Nasher Museum of Art

Mingle with faculty over cocktails and hors d'oeuvres at this beautiful campus location. (Business attire.)

Tuesday, August 14

LEAD effectively

8:30-9:30 am

Breakfast

3rd Floor Loggia

9:30-10:15 am

Building a 21st Century Law School

Room 3041

Professor Tom Metzloff offers a behind-the-scenes virtual tour of the Law School's exciting renovations, while Deputy Director of the Library Melanie Dunshee and Director of Educational Technologies Wayne Miller describe the Law School's related library and technological changes.

10:15-11:15 am

Meet Your Mentors: Student Perspectives on Leadership

Room 3041

Hosted by Director of Student Activities Karyn Ridder and Director of Public Interest & JD Advising Tia Barnes '03, student panelists discuss the myriad opportunities at Duke Law School for first-year student involvement. Assistant Dean for Student Affairs Anne Sherman T'94 introduces our LEAD Fellows.

11:15-11:45 am

Lawyers as Leaders

Room 3041

Associate Dean for Career and Professional Development Bruce Elvin '93 defines leadership in the context of the legal profession. Robert Kulhan, Business Improvisations Senior Partner, offers his perspective on the importance of improvisational communication and leadership.

11:45 am-12:45 pm

Grab-and-go Lunch

Law School Annex

1-5 pm

Leadership with Improvisation Workshop

See enclosed break-out schedule for times and locations

Along with your LEAD groups, join instructors trained by Chicago's famed Second City for an engaging afternoon that will prepare you for class and for your future life as a lawyer.

7-9 pm

Improv Jam

Tyler's Tap Room at the American Tobacco Campus

Showcase your skills at this fun capstone event. Join your workshop facilitators for an evening of good humor and good spirits. (Early arrival is recommended for dinner on your own and to account for Durham Bulls game-related traffic.)

Wednesday, August 15

SERVE the community

Breakfast

On your own

10-11 am

Public Interest & Pro Bono Primer

Room 3041

Associate Dean for Public Interest and Pro Bono Carol Spruill and service-minded upper-class students describe ways to contribute to the community through pro bono and public interest work.

11 am-Noon

18 Years Lost: The Trials of Darryl Hunt

Room 3041

As portrayed in an award-winning HBO documentary, Darryl Hunt was convicted of a rape he didn't commit and served 18 years in North Carolina prisons before being released in 2003 based on DNA evidence. Meet Darryl and his inspiring attorney, Mark Rabil, and hear this fascinating story first-hand.

Noon-1 pm

Community Service Kick-off and Q Shack BBQ Lunch Law School Annex

Thanks to the Duke Bar Association Community Service Board and the law firm of King & Spalding for supporting this signature service event.

1-4:30 pm

11th Annual Dedicated to Durham

See related flyer for details

Work with fellow students, faculty, and administrators to make a difference in your new community.

2 pm

Transfer Student Orientation

Room 4042

4:30 pm

Duke Bar Association Cook-out and Ice Cream Social Law School Annex

Celebrate a job well done during Dedicated to Durham, and meet your upper-class student mentors and DBA representatives.

