

*All programs are at the Moscone Center West unless otherwise indicated

Thursday, August 5

10:30 am – 12:00 pm

Presidential Showcase Program - 20/20 Vision: The Impact of Technology and Globalization on Ethics for the 21st Century Lawyer

Lawyers and law firms of all sizes and practice areas are experiencing technology driven realities that did not exist 8 years ago and which consumers of legal services demand they endorse. Because our world is shrinking, global legal practice developments are increasingly relevant to U.S. practitioners and clients. Hear from experts about the ethical challenges of virtual law offices, where clients interact with lawyers or access their files through on-line portals maintained on the “cloud,” globalization and attendant ethical and regulatory implications for outbound U.S. lawyers and inbound foreign lawyers as well as legal process outsourcing.

This is a complimentary CLE program.

Speakers:

George Jones, Jr, Sidley Austin LLP, Washington, DC

Stephanie Kimbro, Kimbro Legal Services, Wilmington, NC

Steven Mark, Legal Services commissioner, New South Wales, Australia

Judith Miller, Washington, DC

Primary Sponsor:

ABA Commission on Ethics 20/20

Saturday, August 7th

10:30 am - 12:00 pm

Presidential Showcase Program - The Digital Revolution and E-Discovery Present Dramatic Challenges for Lawyers, the Business Community, and the Courts

E-discovery is transforming how lawyers practice law and dramatically affecting the business community and the courts. Explore the consequences of the digital revolution on business, access to justice for individuals and organizations, and courts immersed in uncharted territory in addressing digital evidence, particularly after the Supreme Court’s Melendez-Diaz decision.

Speakers:

Hon. John Facciola, U.S. District Court, Washington, DC

Prof. Richard Marcus, UC Hastings College of Law, San Francisco, CA

Lucy L. Thomson, CSC, Alexandria, VA

Primary Sponsor:

ABA Section of Science and Technology

2:00 pm – 5:00 pm

The Murder of Vincent Chin

This program explores the development and evolution of race-based hate crimes under federal law by examining the 1982 state and federal trials regarding the murder of Vincent Chin and the way later hate crimes such as the Matthew Sheppard case have been prosecuted. It examines the role of prosecutors and defense counsel and judges in these cases.

Primary Sponsor:

ABA Section of Tort Trial and Insurance Practice

Co-Sponsor:

National Asian Pacific American Bar Association

3:45 pm – 5:15 pm

I Can See Clearly Now: Insights from the Nation's Top CLOs

Financial Armageddon has been avoided in the markets. But companies large and small – including law firms and law departments – are still grappling with the consequences and implications of the Great Recession. Concurrently, the landscape for compliance, regulation, data protection and privacy has become increasingly complex and must accommodate changing business models and new technologies such as social networks. Come learn what CLOs from leading-edge technology companies are doing to steer their companies through this challenging environment.

Speakers:

Tonik Barber, VIZ Media, LLC, San Francisco, CA

Paula Boggs, Starbucks Coffee Company, Seattle, WA

Mary Doyle, Palm, Inc., Sunnyvale, CA

Nancy Heinen, Apple Computer, Inc., Portola Valley, CA

Alexander MacGillivray, Twitter, San Francisco, CA

Primary Sponsor:

ABA Section of Science and Technology

Sunday, August 8th

8:30 am – 10:00 am

Lawyers at Midlife: Planning For and Living the Rest of Your Life

Palace Hotel

Lawyers at midlife, as young as 50, should begin planning for the time when they no longer practice law. Financial planning and the need for economic independence play a big role, but not the only aspects to consider. This program looks at the emotional aspects and the need for meaningful engagement after transitioning from practice.

Speaker:

Mike Long, Attorney Counselor, Oregon Attorney Assistance Program and author

Lawyers at Midlife – Laying the Groundwork for the Road Ahead

Primary Sponsor:

ABA Commission on Lawyer Assistance Programs

10:30 am – 12:00 pm

Presidential Showcase Program - The Vanishing Line Between Criminal and Civil Securities Fraud: SEC v. Goldman Sachs and Other Recent Securities Fraud Actions

Once the line dividing criminal and civil securities fraud was clear. With the increasing criminalization of enforcement actions for securities fraud that line continues to blur to the point where many believe it is non-existent. This program will explore the complex legal issues surrounding charging civil and criminal securities frauds and the critical issues regarding the exercise of prosecutorial discretion in this area. The resolution of these questions is critical to every corporate executive.

Speakers:

Greg Andres, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, Justice Department, Washington, DC

Hon. Cormac Carney, U.S. District Court, Central District of California, Santa Ana, CA

(Invited)

Cheryl Evans, Special Counsel, U.S. Chamber Legal Reform, Washington, DC

Tom Gorman, Porter Wright LLP, Washington, DC

Robert Khuzami, Director of Enforcement Division, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, DC (Invited)

Prof. Ellen Podger, Stetson University College of Law, Gulf Port, FL

Frank Razzano, Pepper Hamilton LLP, Washington, DC

Primary Sponsor:

ABA Section of Criminal Justice