American Bar Association Law Student Division

Welcome to the City by the Bay

The ABA Law Student Division is pleased to welcome you to the 2010 ABA Annual Meeting in San Francisco where you can experience first-hand a diverse selection of the finest CLE available to law professionals.

In addition to the Law Student Division's programming and events, you are encouraged to take full advantage of the Annual Meeting by attending the numerous educational programs sponsored by other ABA specialty Sections, Divisions and Forums. These events will provide you with opportunities to meet and interact with law professionals from across the country practicing in a variety of settings. A list of suggested programs and events sponsored by other ABA entities that may be of interest to you are provided at the end of this brochure.

Meeting Registration

The deadline for advance registration and housing at an ABA official meeting hotel ended on July 12. Meeting registrations are being accepted at the ABA Main Registration Desk located at the Moscone Center West (747 Howard Street, Exhibit Hall, Level 1). The meeting registration fee for ABA Law Student Division members is $75 ($100 for non-ABA member law students). Registration forms submitted after July 12 deadline are being held for processing when you arrive at the ABA main Registration Desk. If you submitted your registration after July 12, your name will not appear in the Annual Meeting's Advance Registration book.

Registration Packet-ABA Main Registration Area

All Annual Meeting attendees must first check in at the main ABA Registration Desk at the Moscone Center West (747 Howard Street, Exhibit Hall, Level 1) to receive their official 2010 Annual Meeting registration badge and bag of materials. You cannot check-in with the Law Student Division or attend the Career Fair until you have proof of registration (your official 2010 Annual Meeting badge) from the ABA main Registration Desk. In addition to the list of pre-registrants, you will receive the Annual Meeting master program book which includes a variety of program offerings designed to meet the needs of new lawyers or those just entering the profession. We encourage you to take advantage of these opportunities. As long as you are wearing your official 2010 ABA Annual Meeting law student badge you received at the Moscone Center West, most of these programs are free of charge. When registering at the Moscone Center West, make sure that you are provided with a "Law Student" badge and badge holder to ensure your complimentary admittance to participating educational programs.

Law Student Division Materials

After securing your ABA materials from the ABA main Registration Desk at the Moscone Center West, please visit the Law Student Division Registration Desk at the San Francisco Marriott Marquis Hotel (55 Fourth Street, North Registration, Lower B2 Level) to check-in and receive your Division materials.

Hotel Accommodations

Requests for hotel accommodations will continue to be processed through Thursday, July 22, 2010 based upon availability. Starting July 23, 2010, you must contact the hotel directly to establish your hotel reservations. Rates and availability cannot be guaranteed.

Meeting Admittance Policy

The ABA promotes an open-meetings policy. Meetings and educational programs are open to all Annual Meeting registrants. Some meetings and most educational programs are ticketed with an additional cost attached to them. ABA Law Student Division members registered for the Annual Meeting receive an "All Access CLE Badge" that allows complimentary admittance to educational events; however, any social events or those that include a meal function may require a ticket purchase.

Attire

The San Francisco Marriott Marquis Hotel is also the ABA Annual Meeting Headquarters Hotel so you will see and be seen by high-level ABA leadership as well as other members of the bench and bar, even during down time. Business professional attire (courtroom attire) is recommended for the following Annual Meeting events: Career Fair, Assembly and President's Reception. Business casual is appropriate for other Annual Meeting events. Acceptable business casual attire includes neatly pressed khakis, dress slacks, cropped pants or skirts with shirts, polos or blouses. No jeans, t-shirts, beach sandals or other casual wear.

ABA EXPO

While in San Francisco, please plan a visit to the ABA EXPO, located at the Moscone Center West (747 Howard Street) Thursday, August 5 through Saturday, August 7. The ABA EXPO features more than 100 providers of dynamic legal products and services. Visit exhibiting companies showcasing the latest in communications, legal publishing, computer hardware and software and financial services, all in one convenient place and featuring products designed to attract the imagination of the modern lawyer.

Assembly Delegates, Proxies & Voting

Assembly Delegates

The Assembly is the policy making body of the Division, that convenes once a year during the Division's portion of the ABA Annual Meeting. Members of the Assembly (Assembly Delegates) debate and vote on resolutions relating to legal education and the legal profession. Certified Assembly Delegates also elect the Division's three delegates to the ABA House of Delegates and certified SBA Presidents elect the Division's Vice Chair-SBA.

Certification of Assembly Delegates

Assembly membership is comprised of two principal delegates—the ABA Representative and the SBA President—from each ABA-approved law school. Principal delegates must be current ABA Law Student Division members, (dues paid in full for the current bar year) in order to be certified as Assembly Delegates. Only one SBA President and one ABA Representative from each ABA-approved law school shall be recognized as that school's official delegate. Law schools with multiple SBA Presidents and/or ABA Representatives must determine who will serve as the primary delegates in the Assembly and during the election. Principle delegates should be reported to the ABA Law Student Division through the SBA Presidents and ABA Representatives Reporting Forms. Refer to www.abanet.org/lsd/sba-rep.html for details regarding the reporting process for SBA Presidents and ABA Reps.

Proxy Information and Instructions

Assembly Delegates who are not ABA Law Student Division members may join the ABA or proxy their vote to another law student from their school, provided the law student to whom they are proxying their vote is a fully paid member of the ABA Law Student Division. The proxy holder must present signed written authorization from the principal delegate, preferably on school letterhead, in order to be certified. A proxy letter can also be faxed to the ABA Law Student Division as follows:

For receipt by 12:00 Noon (central time) Tuesday, August 3, 2010

Fax to: Law Student Division Headquarters
Fax: 312.988.6033 / Phone: 312.988.5621
Email: abalsd@staff.abanet.org

Instructions for Email/Fax Proxy Letters (Deadline: 12:00 Noon (CDT), Tuesday, August 3, 2010) This is a strict liability deadline

A proxy letter may be emailed to the ABA Law Student Division (abalsd@staff.abanet.org) provided that the sender of the email/proxy can be verified as the actual SBA President or ABA Representative. Proxy letters sent electronically (via email) must be sent from the email address the ABA has on record for the SBA President or the ABA Rep (based on ABA Reporting Form data submitted) or a verifiable email address (such as the SBA President's/ABA Representative's email address issued to them by their law school).

Received after 12:00 Noon (CDT) on Tuesday, August 3, 2010

Fax to: San Francisco Marriott Marquis Hotel Front Desk
Deliver to: ABA Law Student Division
North Registration Area, Lower B2 Level
Fax: 415.485.8101 / Phone: 415.896.1600
Failable proxy letter available beginning August 4:
www.abanet.org/lsd/proxy-fax.html

Students who are expecting a proxy letter from their school's delegate are responsible for obtaining any faxes from the San Francisco Marriott Marquis Hotel Front Desk. In addition, the ABA Law Student Division cannot be responsible for misdirected proxy letters or those that arrive by email after 12:00 Noon on Tuesday, August 3, 2010.

Sample Proxy Letter Language

I, {principal delegate's name}, {title: ABA Representative or SBA President} of the {law school name} and a principal delegate in the Assembly of the American Bar Association Law Student Division, in accordance with ABA Law Student Division Governing Rules, hereby designate as my proxy {name of student to whom proxy is given}, to cast my vote(s) at the Annual Meeting in San Francisco, CA, to be held August 5-7, 2010.

{Signature and date}

Election of the Division Delegates to the ABA House of Delegates

Certified Assembly Delegates or their proxies who wish to participate in the election of the three Division Delegates to the ABA House of Delegates should proceed to the Election Polling Table at the San Francisco Marriott Marquis Hotel between 2:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. on Friday, August 6 and from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, August 7. Certified Assembly Delegates must sign in with the election judges in order to receive a ballot. Certified Delegates may cast their votes for up to three candidates. Polls will close promptly at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, August 7. Election results will be announced during the Assembly Saturday afternoon.

Election of the Division Vice Chair-SBA

Certified SBA Presidents or their proxies who wish to participate in the election of the Division Vice Chair-SBA should attend the SBA Leadership Conference on Friday, August 6 from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Certified SBA Presidents are required to sign in with the election judges to receive a ballot and cast their school's vote for one Vice Chair-SBA candidate. Election polls open on Friday, August 6 from 8:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Results will be announced during the Assembly Saturday.

Delegate Certification

Certification of Assembly Delegates will take place at the Division's Registration Desk during the following hours:

(G) How to Find a Job in a Small Firm

Co-sponsored by the General Practice, Solo and Small Firm Division

Solo practitioners and small firm settings are one of the fastest growing practices in the legal profession. The ABA General Practice, Solo & Small Firm Division (GPSolo) is a great way for law students to network with local and national lawyers in this practice setting and to learn more about this exciting way to practice law! With over 10,000 law student members in GPSolo, this trend towards solo and small firms shows no sign of slowing down.

Do you want to know the answers to "Where to look for a job in a small firm?" or "How to approach small firms about clerkships or permanent positions?" Join us to learn from a panel of ABA GPSolo members about their experiences as a solo or small firm lawyer as well as the qualifications that they look for in an applicant. You will also have an opportunity to approach the panelists for a private one-on-one consultation.

9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. (Golden Gate Hall C1 - B2 Level)

(G) 24,000 Federal Government Legal Jobs Will Be Open This Decade: So How Do I Get One?

Co-sponsored by the ABA Administrative Law & Regulatory Practice Section

No, it's not a bogus sales pitch, it's a demographic fact that older attorneys in federal service will depart and open slots for your generation's best and brightest. At the ABA Annual Meeting, the author of the March 2010 ABA Press book, CAREERS IN ADMINISTRATIVE LAW, will highlight the hiring patterns and the job prospects in federal service, as well as the varied patterns for state and local regulatory and administrative practice. These are real jobs, not movie/TV glamour courtroom roles, and you need to understand patterns and practices before you enter the competition for these roles. Come hear an expert's expert addressing this hot topic ... or sleep in and let someone else scoop your career!

Fair Trial, Free Press? Trying High-Profile Cases in a 24/7 'New Media' World

Primary Sponsor: Judicial Division National Conference of State Trial Judges

In a fast-paced, multi-media "talk show" format, renowned judges, lawyers, and journalists will use real-life examples "ripped from the headlines" – screening actual news reports on select trials – to highlight the growing challenges of litigating high-profile cases in a world where a 24/7 news cycle is the norm, the journalists' code of ethics is being rewritten "on the fly," and jurors are negotiating book deals during coffee breaks and researching case details on their Blackberries to reach a verdict. The relationship between the courts and the media has always been rocky, and the emergence of "new" and "social" media clearly raise the stakes and pose novel problems.
