

CHRISTINE BURDICK BIOGRAPHY

Christine Burdick is Executive Director and General Counsel for the Santa Clara County Bar Association, a position she has held for the past 12 years. Ms. Burdick has been a lawyer for over 20 years and is admitted to practice in Utah, Idaho, and California. Over the course of her 20 year career, Ms. Burdick has been employed in private civil practice, as managing attorney for Idaho Legal Aid, and as Chief Disciplinary Counsel and General Counsel for the Utah State Bar. She has served as an adjunct professor of law teaching Ethics and Professionalism for over five years.

Ms. Burdick has been active in professional activities including: Member of the State Bar Commission on the Future of the Legal Profession in California; Chair, State Bar Committee on Women in the Law; Judicial Council's Standing Committee on Access & Fairness where she has served on the following subcommittees: Gender Fairness; Sexual Orientation Fairness; Women of Color and the Judiciary. Ms. Burdick led the drafting group which drafted the Access & Fairness Committee's Report on Sexual Orientation Fairness in the California Courts. She is the incoming President-Elect for the Executives of California Legal Associations. In her spare time, she is President of a new company, Web-Zealot.com, which develops and designs web sites for bar associations.