

Helen B. Druce

Executive Director

Onondaga County Bar Association (Syracuse, NY)

Helen Druce has been the Executive Director of the 1650-member Onondaga County Bar Association for the past 17 years. She is currently the chair of the NABE LRIS Forum and secretary of the NABE Administration and Finance Section. She has served previously as chair of the NABE LRS and CLE Sections along with other NABE committee service.

Before joining the Bar Association staff, Helen taught high school and junior college business subjects, including Business Law and Business Management. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and Business Administration from St. Lawrence University and NYS permanent teaching certification in Business and English. She co-chaired the Onondaga County Citizens Court Observers Group and is co-founder of the New Justice Conflict Resolution Services, Inc. (1981), continuing on that Board as the Bar liaison. In 2002 Helen was a recipient of the Women in Business Award. and recently received the Spirit of Mary Harriman Award from the Junior League of Syracuse, Inc. for effective community voluntarism fostering social change. Through her community involvements, she is pleased to find opportunities to promote the Bar Association and the good works of its members.

1/08/03