

JANIS C. JERMAN

Janis Jerman is the Director of Administration & Finance and the Bar Counsel for the Connecticut Bar Association. Prior to joining the CBA in 2001, Janis was a solo practitioner in Hartford. Her practice focused on labor and employment law.

Janis received a B.A. in psychology from Purdue University in 1987 and received a J.D. from the University of Connecticut School of Law in 1993. Janis is admitted to practice law in Connecticut and in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut.

Janis also maintains a practice as a neutral arbitrator/special hearing officer with the Connecticut Judicial Branch, the Connecticut State Department of Education, the Connecticut State Department of Consumer Protection, and American Dispute Resolution Center, Inc.

Janis is a member of the CBA's Committee on Professional Ethics and the Labor & Employment Law, Administrative Law and ADR sections. She is active in her community, currently participating in Rotary Club of New Britain-Berlin, University of Connecticut Law School Alumni Association (past president), and the Fidelco Foster Puppy program. Janis was recently honored by the YWCA of New Britain Women in Leadership program.
