

Audrey Mathies

Audrey Mathies, Program Director for the Indianapolis Bar Association, organizes continuing legal education programs and social events for 25 sections, divisions and committees within the organization. Ms. Mathies' past experiences include teaching, presenting international sports medicine seminars and working as a faculty program director. She obtained her Master's of Education from Slippery Rock University and her Bachelor of Science from Indiana University.