

Diane K. Minnich

Diane Minnich is currently the executive director of the Idaho State Bar and Idaho Law Foundation, Inc. She has worked for the organizations since 1985, serving as legal education director and deputy director prior to being selected as the director in 1990. She is a member of NABE, previously serving as the Membership Committee Chair, and on the Nominating and Website Committees. She currently serves as the Secretary-Treasurer of the Western States Bar Conference. She is the current president of the Downtown Boise Rotary Club and a member of the Boise State University Legal Assistant Advisory Council. She graduated from San Jose State University and has lived in Boise since 1981. She and her husband (have two young daughters (and consequently have temporarily given up golf).