

Lelia N. Martin

Lee Martin serves as the Executive Director of The Bar Association of the City of Richmond. She has worked for the organization since 1992, serving as Communications Assistant before being selected as the director in 1996. An undergraduate of the University of Virginia, she holds a Master's degree from George Mason University. Ms. Martin's past experiences include stints in the fields of sports administration and advertising.