

Robert Stoeckl

Robert Stoeckl has been Director of Projects at The Missouri Bar since 2002. In his position, he serves as the editor of ESQ., the bar's weekly electronic ezine/newsletter, he manages the bar's Annual Meeting and is responsible for committee development. Prior to joining the staff of The Missouri Bar, he has had over 10 years experience in nonprofit management and communications, including serving for more than six years as executive director of a science research foundation in the horticulture/floriculture industry. He holds a B.A. in Communications, Magna Cum Laude, from Southern Illinois University.