

Gerard M. Zack, CPA, CFE, ACFE Fellow
Speaker Biography

Gerard M. Zack, MBA, CPA, CFE has provided fraud prevention consulting, external and internal audit, fraud investigation, forensic accounting, expert witness testimony, and board and management training for nonprofit organizations, commercial businesses, and government agencies since 1981. Based in Rockville, Maryland, he has worked with organizations of all types and sizes throughout the United States. Gerry is a Partner with Wipfli, LLP, a Wisconsin-based accounting and consulting firm that serves clients throughout the U.S. With 19 offices and more than 600 professionals, Wipfli ranks among the twenty largest CPA and consulting firms in the U.S. Gerry is the director of Wipfli's anti-fraud services.

Gerry is a Certified Fraud Examiner and CPA and has focused most of his career on audit and fraud-related services. In 2003, Gerry received recognition as one of only seven Fellows in the 29,000-member Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, based on his significant contributions to the body of knowledge in the anti-fraud field, as well as his extensive experience in the field.

Gerry is the author of the 384-page book, Fraud and Abuse in Nonprofit Organizations: A Guide to Prevention and Detection (published June 2003 by John Wiley & Sons). He is also author of numerous articles on fraud and teaches seminars on fraud protection for businesses, government agencies, and nonprofit organizations. He has been brought in by more than 40 CPA firms to provide internal staff training on SAS No. 99 and other fraud and audit issues. In addition to his extensive consulting and fraud work, Gerry is a frequent lecturer and seminar instructor, and has trained more than 10,000 accountants and auditors.

Mr. Zack earned his M.B.A. at Loyola College in Maryland and his B.S.B.A. at Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania. He can be contacted by telephone at (301) 987-0287 or by e-mail at gzack@WipfliYoung.com.
