

Colleen Buggy
Director of Membership Services
Ohio State Bar Association

Colleen Buggy has been with the Ohio State Bar Association since 1997. Before being promoted to her current position as director of membership services, she worked in the association's publications department, serving as associate editor of the Ohio State Bar Association Report and overseeing the production of more than 10 quarterly newsletters. Her current responsibilities include overseeing all association recruitment and retention activities; member benefit programs; the annual convention, district meetings and law school visits; member records; and the association's call center. Colleen also does freelance desktop publishing and design work out of her home.

Colleen is currently serving on the executive council of the National Association of Bar Executives' Communications Section. She received her bachelor of science in Journalism/Public Relations from Ohio University in 1993.
