HEAD NOTES

- You can't be sure how the race will end coming out of the second turn.
- In golf, and in life, when someone says "that's a gimmie" - take it.
- Nothing is often a good thing to do - and frequently a brilliant thing to say.
- Learn people's names and what they do or did.
- Hire above average people and expect above average performance.
- If you can't be on time - be early.

SAN FRANCISCO

With regard to our upcoming Annual Meeting in San Francisco, the lineup is fantastic! I'd like to remind you that handout materials are posted on NABE's website (www.abanet.org/nabe/events/07annualhandouts.html), and they will not be distributed at the meeting. Don't forget to print the ones you want to bring to San Francisco.

The Wednesday night welcome reception and dinner will be held at the new National Constitution Center on historic Independence Mall, overlooking the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall. The evening kicks off with a cocktail reception that tells the story of the Constitution. On Thursday, optional events will include a tour of QVC Studio Park, where the network films live 24 hours a day; a Philadelphia in the Movies private coach tour of settings from films including “Rocky,” “The Sixth Sense,” “In Her Shoes” and “National Treasure”; and a viewing of the Philadelphia Museum of Art’s much-anticipated “Renoir Landscapes” exhibition.

From cheese steaks, hoagies and soft pretzels to BYOBs and celebrity chef bistros, the dining choices are endless. The Doubletree is within walking distance of dozens of renowned restaurants, museums and attractions. Visit www.abanet.org/nabe to register.
