

American Bar Association

Task Force on Corporate Responsibility

The ABA Task Force on Corporate Responsibility, appointed by ABA President Robert E. Hirshon in March, 2002, is comprised of the following members:

- James H. Cheek, III, partner, Bass, Berry & Sims PLC, Nashville, TN (and a former Chair of the ABA Business Law Section); Chair of the ABA Task Force
- The Honorable Ben F. Tennille, North Carolina Business Court in Greensboro, NC;
- Thomas A. Gottschalk, executive vice president, law and public policy, General Motors Corp., Detroit, MI.;
- Nell A. Hennessy, senior vice president, Aon Consulting, Washington, D.C., and Chair of the Business Law Section's Committee on Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation;
- R. William Ide III, a past president of the ABA, former senior vice president and general counsel of Monsanto Corp., and currently a lawyer in private practice in Atlanta, GA.;
- Charles E. McCallum, partner, Warner, Norcross & Judd LLP, Grand Rapids, MI, and Chair of the Business Law Section's Committee on Multidisciplinary Practice;
- Robert H. Mundheim, former senior executive vice president and general counsel, Salomon Smith Barney Holdings Inc., and currently of counsel with Shearman & Sterling, New York, NY;
- John F. Olson, partner, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, Washington, D.C., and Chair of the Business Law Section's Committee on Corporate Governance;
- Aulana L. Peters, Los Angeles, CA, a former commissioner of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and currently a member of the New York Stock Exchange Market Regulatory Advisory Committee;
- Joel Seligman, dean and professor at Washington University School of Law in St. Louis, MO;
- Solomon B. Watson IV, senior vice president, general counsel and secretary, The New York Times Company, New York, NY