Elizabeth K. Acee is a litigation lawyer in Tyler Cooper's New Haven office. Ms. Acee regularly represents clients in a wide variety of matters, including complex unfair trade practice and contract disputes, employment litigation and health care fraud and abuse.

Ms. Acee has litigation experience in both state and federal court, including bench trial and jury trial experience. Ms. Acee also has extensive experience practicing before administrative agencies, including but not limited to handling matters before the Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities, the Connecticut Department of Labor, and the Workers' Compensation Commission. Additionally, Ms. Acee regularly and successfully arbitrates and mediates claims for her clients.

Lizz's practice has both depth and scope. The cases she has handled span industries from entertainment and film to aviation. Though she defends clients of all sizes, many in her portfolio are large companies with national reputations. She has defended a Texas aircraft manufacturer, several national food products manufacturers, and a dozen motion picture distributors, among others.

Lizz has attained leadership posts that demonstrate the respect and confidence she has earned from her peers in the legal profession. She is very active in both the American and Connecticut bar associations. She is the current Assistant Secretary-Treasurer of the Connecticut Bar Association and the Secretary-Treasurer of the American Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division. She will Chair the Division in 2008. Lizz is also the immediate past-Chair of the Connecticut Bar Association's Young Lawyers Section. Lizz is one of only two lawyers from Connecticut to have ever held all three prestigious posts.

Ms. Acee earned her J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law in 1999. While at Case, she was an Executive Editor of Health Matrix: Journal of Law-Medicine, a member of the Niagara Moot Court team and honor court co-counsel with Professor James W. McElhaney. She received her B.S. from S.U.N.Y. Buffalo in 1995.
