

Diane Darling

Diane Darling founded Effective Networking, Inc. on the premise that everyone can learn to network; you just need to find your own style. By combining interactive training, strategic planning and an exploration of the natural fears of networking, Diane demystifies the process by providing techniques that can be immediately implemented.

Diane wrote The Networking Survival Guide, published in 2003, and Networking for Career Success, published in 2005. The books have been translated into Portuguese, Thai, Korean, Chinese, Indonesian and Japanese. She has appeared on the NBC Nightly News, in The Wall Street Journal, San Francisco Chronicle, and The Boston Globe.

Diane's travels include all seven continents and approximately 60 countries. She has lived in various parts of the US and the Far East.
