Profile

Ms. Schmidt is a principal in the New York office of Deloitte Financial Advisory Services LLP ("Deloitte FAS"), and is the national service line leader for the Business Intelligence Services practice. A former litigator, Ms. Schmidt specializes in developing background information on people and entities worldwide. Utilizing online and Internet sources, along with traditional field investigative techniques, she is able to develop background information and intelligence virtually anywhere in the world. Her work includes sensitive investigative due diligence for financial and strategic buyers in domestic and international transactions. Ms. Schmidt utilizes these same skills to provide litigation support in complex business disputes and support in internal investigations. Her clients include leading international and domestic law firms, corporations, and financial institutions. In addition to serving clients, Ms. Schmidt serves on Deloitte's global steering committee for the Advancement and Retention of Talented Women, and is a former national leader of Deloitte's US Women's Initiative Network (WIN). In her role as a WIN leader, Ms. Schmidt is responsible for the development and oversight of programs aimed at the retention, promotion, and recruitment of women.
