

Biography of Lisa Horowitz—2009

Lisa Horowitz is Immediate Past President of the National Association of Women Lawyers and is currently a member of the American Bar Association Commission on Women. She is Director of Professional Development at McDermott Will & Emery LLP where she is responsible for implementing McDermott University, the firm's comprehensive professional development system. Ms. Horowitz is Vice-Chair of McDermott's Associate Development Committee and a member of the firm's Gender Diversity Committee. She regularly coaches attorneys on career planning and business development and is a frequent external trainer and speaker on talent and leadership development. A graduate of Tufts University, Ms. Horowitz received her J.D. from The National Law Center, George Washington University and her Masters in Organizational Development/Human Resources from Johns Hopkins University. She is a member of the District of Columbia Bar and served on the D.C. Bar's Law Practice Management Steering Committee. Ms. Horowitz practiced federal procurement law and construction contract law in Washington D.C. for 18 years. She can be reached at 202-756-8134 or lhorowitz@mwe.com.