

Lorraine K. Koc

Lorraine K. Koc is Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of Deb Shops, Inc., a national retail chain with 3,500 employees in 43 states. Ms. Koc advises on a broad range of corporate matters, with an emphasis on employment law and risk management issues. She directs and manages the corporate compliance program, and is responsible for internal investigations, and has also served as Co-Chief Information Security Officer.

Ms. Koc is a Past President of the National Association of Women Lawyers (NAWL), serves on its Evaluation of U.S. Supreme Court Nominees Committee, and is Vice President of the NAWL Foundation. She is a former director of the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) (Delaware Valley Chapter), where she currently co-chairs its Advocacy Committee. She also chaired the Corporate Counsel Committee/General Practice Section and the Young Lawyers Public Service Committee of the American Bar Association (ABA). She is a member of the Forum of Executive Women (FOEW), and the Pennsylvania and Philadelphia Bar Associations.

Ms. Koc has been an adjunct professor at Penn State University (Abington College) since 1988, teaching a variety of legal courses, and serving on its statewide Board of Advisors for the Paralegal Studies Program. She has lectured for various continuing legal education programs, including Inside Counsel's Super Conference, the Pennsylvania Bar Institute, and the Philadelphia Bar Association.

Ms. Koc graduated summa cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania with degrees in economics and political science, and was awarded the Senior Prize in Economics. She also earned her J.D. and an M.A. (Public Policy) from Penn. She can be reached at LKoc@DebShops.com.